Welcome to the new and improved 2015 Cash Flow Calendar.

Smart Investment!

This tool can seriously grow your business in the next year... IF you use it consistently!

If you do at least ONE promotion a month using this – you will grow your business by leaps and bounds.

Do one a week... and hang on to your hat!

People love them because they are fun, unusual, and stand out from all the clutter they see.

But, there is good news and bad news to cover first...

The bad news? Picking one of the hundreds of special occasions every month to use in your promotions! I actually lied a bit – the cover says over 1,584 marketing ideas – there's actually almost DOUBLE THAT! Surprise 😊

The good news? I've added wayyyyyy more dates to this edition (8th year in production now) and you have some incredible ideas here for promotions. The supplemental swipe file will help you understand how to use these promotions.

In a nutshell:

- 1) Find the date or week you want to run some promotions (best to do this a couple weeks in advance).
- 2) Find a special occasion that sounds like fun – and is something you are comfortable using (comfort comes with practice)
- 3) You want to ideally do a 3-step promotion around your date. So pick a special occasion, do a quick search on Google for it. Get the background on the occasion. Find 3 unique ways to talk about this date (the fun side of it, the serious side, the sad side, as an example). Lay out 3 bullet point lists of how you can write around this (using the swipe materials as an example). Write 3 emails or promotional pieces that tie in your special occasion to a product or service you want to promote.
- 4) Send those promotions out – spaced a day or two apart from each other (best results come from a minimum of 3 different promotions for one special occasion).
- 5) Note feedback from clients, measure sales, develop thick skin (people love to complain – get used to it!), then readjust and do another promotion.
- 6) Be consistent and do one 3-step promotion a month MINIMUM.
- 7) Let me know your results! (Call me at 403-259-4566 or email me at troy@smallbusinesscopywriter.com)
- 8) Go through the supplement information, instructions, swipe info and bonuses as well to up your marketing game and improve your cash flow!

Pretty simple – and proven to work – if you work it.
