

THE [ULTIMATE LIST] OF BLOG POST IDEAS

BE USEFUL

- These useful blog post ideas will endear you to your market and establish you and your business as the authority in your niche.

LIST POST

- List posts are everywhere and for good reason... they flat out work.

Create a list of books, tools, resources or any other thing that your market will find useful.

HOW-TO POST

- The How-To Post is another staple blog post idea.

Describe how to execute a process and use images, video or audio to enrich the post and make it as easy as possible for your visitor to take action.

CASE-STUDY POST

- The term 'case study' carries more perceived value than the term article, blog post or video.

Outline and unpack the details of something like a project, event or process.

PROBLEM/ SOLUTION POST

- This type of post has an easy format:

-Define a problem
-Present the solution

This post can cross over into the territory of other blog post types such as the FAQ Post, How-To Post or Checklist Post.

SAQ POST

- The Should Ask Question Post is a variation of the FAQ post. This is a question that customers or prospects don't ask — but they should.

RESEARCH POST

- Conducting your own primary research around a topic in your niche is one of the best ways to build blog content that gets attention.

CHECKLIST POST

- If the content you are delivering can be broken into a "checklist" it will often perform better.

People like the checklist format because it's easy to digest and take action when the content is itemized in this way.

ULTIMATE GUIDE POST

- The ultimate guide post is just what it sounds like — a detailed, comprehensive post on a topic in your niche.

Don't skimp here — take your time and deliver the definitive post on the topic.

DEFINITION POST

- In niches where the market needs to be educated the definition post is an absolute must.

Consider creating a series of posts that define aspects of your niche.

SERIES POST

- Look for opportunities to break a topic into a series that can be released each day over the course of a week or every Monday over the course of a month.

Link these articles together as you publish them.

STATS POST

- This post (like the Research Post) works best when you can use statistics that you have produced.

That said, consider curating and pulling together stats from multiple locations to create a good statistics post.

FAQ POST

- If you get repeat questions from customers or prospects there is a good chance they are typing these same questions into Google and other search engines.

Create content around these topics.

YOUTUBE CUT-UP POST

- Use a popular YouTube video to create stellar content.

Take screenshots during video, add text explanations, and embed the video onto your post. This is a fast and easy way to create high-value content.

BE HUMAN

INSPIRATIONAL POST

- Some of the most effective content on the web is neither informational or entertaining — it simply inspires.

This kind of post can work well as a Story Post, Profile Post or Quote Post among others.

HOLIDAY POST

- Some blogs go dormant on popular holidays while others use the opportunity to deliver well-wishes to their audience and display their humanity.

GUARD DOWN POST

- Some of the best content on the web is created by a content creator that lets their guard down by delivering a deeply personal experience that the audience can relate to.

BEHIND THE SCENES POST

- If you have a loyal following they will want to see what goes on behind the scenes of the content that you can create.

OFF-TOPIC POST

- This can be risky, but if you have a loyal following that has become accustomed to you covering a specific set of topics — this kind of post can shock them and receive a great response.

Test it.

RANT POST

- The rant post shows your human side by revealing your passion and anger about a topic that is relevant to your audience.

It's not for everyone but the right blog and the right audience will respond well to a rant.

BE GENEROUS

- One of the easiest ways to grow your blog is to be generous by promoting other people. When you promote others they will promote you.

PROFILE POST

- Write a profile of an influential person in your niche.

Be sure to notify them via email, phone call or social media that you have profiled them — this way they will have an opportunity to share it.

CROWDSOURCED POST

- Bring multiple influencers together to answer a single question in short form.

When you get 10 influencers to give you 100 words each on a single topic you've got a powerful blog post.

INTERVIEW POST

- It's surprising how willing even the most influential people are to give you an interview — even if you have a small audience on your blog.

Remember that the easiest way for an influencer to give you an interview is through audio — all they have to do is call you and start talking.

LINK ROUNDUP POST

- This type of post can work well as a series that publishes once a month or once a week.

Curate, link to and provide a description of multiple pieces of content that your audience will find valuable.

QUOTE POST

- People love quotes from influential people. Pull together quotes from multiple influencers across a specific topic to create a 'Quote Post'.

Again, if applicable — be sure to notify those that you quote that you have included them in your post.

BEST OF THE WEB POST

- The Best of the Web Post often includes content, tools and other resources that you have curated, linked to and described.

PICK OF THE WEEK POST

- This is a popular type of series post and is usually a relatively short blog post that describes a single piece of content, tool or other resource that you have curated, linked to and described.

PEOPLE TO FOLLOW POST

- Curate a list of influential people, describe them and provide links for your audience to connect with them through their website, social media channels, events, books, etc.

CONTENT AGGREGATOR

- This is a hybrid form of the list post that uses other people's content. Find the most socially viral content on a given topic and aggregate it into one post.

BE PROMOTIONAL

- Some organizations use their blogs in a promotional way. This can work very well for the right company.

COMPARISON POST

- Create a post that compares the features and benefits of your product to competitive solutions.

For best results and to build trust, include cases where your product IS NOT the best solution.

PROJECT SHOWCASE POST

- Use your blog to outline a specific project you or your organization is working on currently or has completed.

Show the process and share results if possible.

INCOME REPORT POST

- Open the books and show your audience a breakdown of the money you and your organization are making.

COMPANY UPDATE POST

- Use your blog to let your customers and prospects know of new employee hires, acquisitions or major contracts.

PRESENTATION POST

- Publish presentations given by employees that contain interesting and valuable content for your audience.

BEST OF POST

- Create a blog post that pulls together the most popular blog posts you have published over a period of time.

PRODUCT UPDATE POST

- If you have rabid fans of your products and services you might be surprised at how well a post on new product/new feature announcements will do on your blog.

PRODUCT TIPS POST

- This post type is both promotional and useful and is very powerful for the right blog & audience.

Create content that helps your customers be more successful with your product or service.

TIP: Prospects will read these too.

BE CONTROVERSIAL

- You can get a lot of action on controversial posts — just make sure it fits with your brand.

WHAT IF POST

- This type of blog post speculates on what would happen if...

The success of this type of post rests on your ability to choose a "what if" that is interesting and debatable.

DEBATE POST

- Use your blog to present one side of a debatable argument...

Or find someone that disagrees with you and present both sides in the same post.

ATTACK POST

- Be careful with this one but picking a fight with the right person/organization/event, etc will force your audience to choose sides and draw lots of attention.

This type of post, when done right, will create enemies of some and die hard fans of others.

PREDICTION POST

- If you take a debatable and speculative approach, a prediction post can get a great response.

REACTION POST

- Use your blog to react to content created by someone else.

For example, the content might be a blog post, book or presentation.

EMBED REACTOR

- Find an embeddable video (think YouTube), Slideshare presentation, infographic (check out visually). Aim for content that is already popular.

Embed it in your blog post and post your reaction underneath. Create a title that is a variation of the resource you are embedding. Done.

BE ENTERTAINING

- Creating entertaining content can be difficult but, if you can make it work, it can be a very effective type of blog post.

STORY POST

- Create content that tells a story that would be entertaining to your market.

Some blogs only produce this type of content and others create a series around this type of blog post.

SATIRE POST

- Be humorous through the use of irony or extreme exaggeration.

This kind of post works well where there are timely issues such as politics or sports.

CARTOON POST

- This type of post works well as a series.

Create weekly or monthly cartoon posts that make your audience laugh and think about issues and events in your niche.

MEME POST

- Meme's are humorous pieces of content that spread virally across the web.

Create your own meme's or pull together a curated set of meme's from across the web.

PARODY POST

- Create a post that imitates a well-known person or media property in your niche. Be sure to exaggerate their strengths and shortcomings in your content.

BE TIMELY

- It takes a commitment to stay timely in some niches but if you can pull it off — timely information is among the most effective blog content you can create.

REVIEW POST

- Review a product, event or anything else you have access to while it is newsworthy.

For best results, be as honest as possible in your review rather than painting everything you review in a positive light.

SURVEY POST

- Choose a newsworthy/trending topic and survey your audience about it using email, social media or in-person events.

Then, pull the results together into a blog post.

NEWS POST

- Look to create content on your blog about events as they are happening.

You don't need to "break" the story but, for best results, be sure to add a perspective that your audience will find valuable or entertaining.

TREND POST

- Some content creators are able to predict trends as they are happening.

If you're a trendspotter, create content on your blog that rides that trend as it becomes popular.

ISSUE POST

- Choose issues that affect your audience and create content about them while they are timely and relevant to them.

BE ENGAGING

- While engagement isn't necessarily the end goal, it pays to create an engaged audience on your blog.

QUESTION POST

- Curate and answer questions your audience asks in social media, on forums or in the comments section of your blog.

ANSWER POST

- The Answer Post is the sister of the Question Post.

In this post type, you will simply ask a question and allow your audience to answer it in your comments section. This type of post is generally very short, allowing your audience to create the bulk of the content.

CHALLENGE POST

- Use a blog post to pose a challenge to your audience.

This post can work well as a series with updates being made that feature audience members that are participating in the challenge.

CUSTOMER SHOWCASE POST

- This blog post type is partly promotional but also builds engagement.

Use your blog to feature a customer or a project you have worked on with the customer.

FREEBIE POST

- Use a blog post to allow your audience to get access to a relevant giveaway.

CONTEST POST

- Announce a contest on your blog.

This post can work well as a series as well with updates being made featuring contest results.
